1 Welcome to Christchurch

Arrive early to see just how Christchurch has transformed itself since the 2010/11 earthquakes. The best way to do this? Aboard the city's tram. It loops past historic attractions as well as some new ones. Hotel: Ibis.

2 Christchurch – Oamaru

Step out with your guide for a deeper dive into 'The City of Gardens' before traversing the colourful Canterbury Plains: the turquoise waters of Lake Tekapo, snow-capped mountains and wildflower-strewn meadows. Opt to take in the drama from the air on a scenic flight over Aoraki/Mount Cook, the Southern Alps and Franz Josef Glacier/Kā Roimata o Hine Hukatere. Hotel: Heritage Gateway. B D

3 Oamaru – Dunedin

Easing through the Waitaki Valley, you're en route toward New Zealand's oldest public gardens. They lie in the pretty town of Oamaru, known for its stately tree-lined streets and limestone buildings. Architectural drama of a different kind awaits in Dunedin. The afternoon is yours to while away. Perhaps sipping a lager or two at Speight's Brewery, or venturing further afield to discover Larnach Castle. Hotel: Kingsgate. B

4 Dunedin – Invercargill

If you've got an odd urge to hear Slim Dusty while traversing rolling green pastures en route to Gore, you're not alone. Fun fact: this is the country music capital of NZ. Invercargill is obsessed with something else: motor vehicles. Tributes to speed legends colour the city, telling the story of everyone from Burt Munro to Bill Richardson – his shed full of classic vehicles is the largest private collection of its type in the world. Hotel: Kelvin, 2 nights. B

5 Stewart Island

The ferry ride to Stewart Island is wild and wonderful. When you arrive, you're welcomed by the country's southernmost community. It's largely untouched, which means endemic flora and fauna thrive here. But don't take our word for it. Meet the locals on a tour through valleys and bays and out to avian heaven at Ulva Island. Or, jump on an e-bike. B

6 Invercargill – Queenstown

Queenstown is known as NZ's adventure capital for good reason. If you'd like to discover why, we can point you in the direction of the world's first bungy jump, the Shotover Jet, or 4WDs to explore Skippers Canyon. There are plenty of alternatives for sybarites. Like vineyards, onsen hot pools, and Lake Wakatipu walking trails. Speaking of which, there's also an afternoon cruise on TSS Earnslaw to Walter Peak High Country Farm for a barbecue dinner. The choice is yours. Hotel: Copthorne Hotel & Resort, 2 nights. B

7 Queenstown Free Time

Today, sign up to dive deep into Milford Sound/Piopiotahi within World Heritage listed Fiordland National Park, best explored on an optional tour cruising the waterway. Don't be surprised if you see dolphins and seals. B

8 Queenstown – Franz Josef/Waiau

Around the next bend is the Alpine countryside of the Southern Lakes, from Lake Dunstan to oh-so-blue Lake Hawea and lovely Lake Wanaka. Over the Haast Pass, Franz Josef Glacier/Kā Roimata o Hine Hukatere shimmers like a gem. Hotel: Scenic Franz Josef Glacier (Graham Wing). B D

9 Franz Josef/Waiau – Punakaiki

Wandering Hokitika's windswept shore on the West Coast feels a bit like you've discovered the end of the Earth. The town's other natural beauty is pounamu (native greenstone or jade). Prepare yourself for Punakaiki's Pancake Rocks and blowholes; they owe their existence to the thundering surf that will lull you to sleep. Hotel: Ocean View Retreat. B D

10 Punakaiki – Nelson

Ease along the Heritage Highway toward Nelson. Press your nose against the glass as your coach weaves through Buller Gorge and Kahurangi National Park, a place of wild rivers, high plateaus, alpine herb fields and coastal forests. Hotel: Rutherford, 2 nights. B

11 Nelson Free Time

Today is at your leisure. Lace up your hiking shoes, or sit back on a boat and soak up the silence of Abel Tasman National Park. This wilderness inspires calm, its golden beaches framed by sculpted granite cliffs that all unite to create one of the country's most legendary coastal tracks. B

12 Nelson – Wellington

You'll want a window seat for the cruise from the South Island to the North aboard the Interislander. This spectacle unfolds as you glide through

Huka Falls
